

Ready to start generating leads from your blog post?

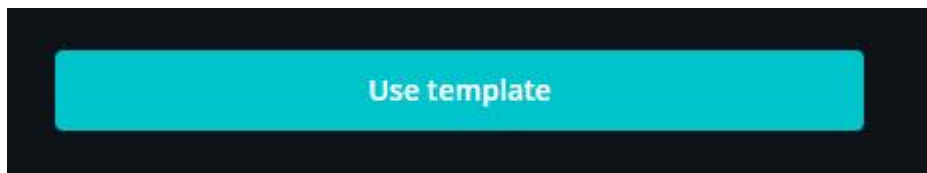

To access your blog post's Content Upgrade, you need a Canva account. You can do that first, or you'll have the option after you've clicked on the link below.

- Login to Canva.

- Follow this link

Click the 'use the template' button on screen to automatically save you a copy of the template that you can edit.

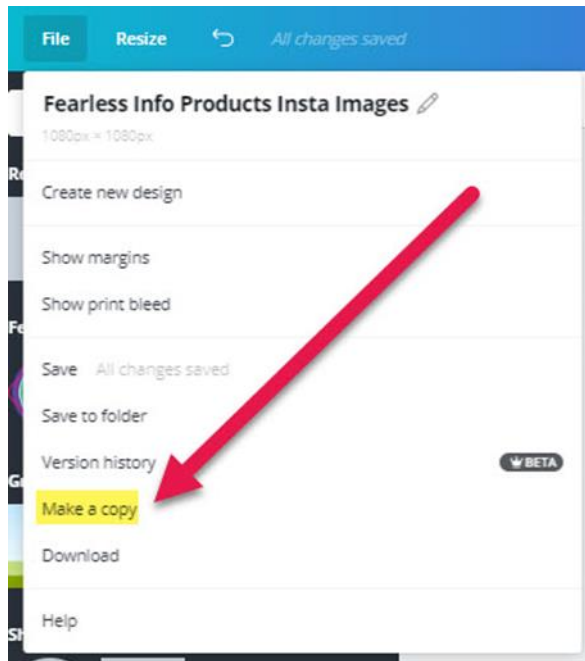

If you don't see this option, here are the instructions to make your own copy:

Go to the top left of your screen and then click File.

Then click "make a copy"

This opens a brand-new tab with the images all neatly ordered ready for you to brand and download.

Close the original tab, and make edits to your own copy of the template.
